Financing Options

1. To help finance your education, we encourage you to look for loans, grants and scholarships. Some places to start include:
  - Your bank or credit union
  - Your school
  - Your community or religious organizations
  - Online (try fastweb.com, a free scholarship search, and gtonline.fdncenter.org, a resource for foundation grants to individuals)

Due to the small size of our institution, Alexandria School is not currently eligible for federal funding (FAFSA).

2. Visa, MasterCard and Discover is accepted for payment of tuition and fees.
(Short-term, zero-interest student credit cards may be available. Please contact us for more information.)

Private financial consultation is available – please contact Carolyn Stulberg, Executive Director at (440) 781-7531 or carolyn.stulberg@alexandria-school.com for an appointment.
